SECTION A

Germany, 1890–1945: Democracy and dictatorship

Answer all six questions on page 3 and then turn to page 5 for Section B

Read Interpretations A and B and answer the questions 01, 02 and 03 on page 3.

He remembers hearing Adolf Hitler speak in January 1931 at Berlin University. Albert Speer went on to become the Nazi Minister for weapons. He was sentenced to 20 years in prison after the war and released in 1966.

Everything about him was reasonable and ordinary looking; he was no shrieking fanatic in a uniform. He spoke passionately; it was hypnotic and persuasive. We were carried on a wave of enthusiasm. It swept away our doubts. Here, it seemed was hope, new ideals, a new understanding. The peril of communism could be stopped.

Interpretation B  Victor Schiff, in an article written in 1950 where he explains Hitler's rise to power.

Schiff was a German journalist and socialist who worked as the Paris correspondent for the American ‘Daily Herald’ newspaper in the 1930s.

If there is one point on which we all agree, it must be surely that Hitler owes his rise and ultimate victory to the World Economic Crisis. Hitler appealed to the despair of the unemployed workers; the young people who had no future; to the middle class businessman and craftsman heading for bankruptcy and to the farmers threatened with a fall in agricultural prices.
How does Interpretation B differ from Interpretation A about Hitler’s appeal to the people of Germany?

Explain your answer using Interpretations A and B. [4 marks]

Why might the authors of Interpretations A and B have a different interpretation about Hitler’s appeal to the people of Germany?

Explain your answer using Interpretations A and B and your contextual knowledge. [4 marks]

Which interpretation do you find more convincing about Hitler’s appeal to the people of Germany?

Explain your answer using Interpretations A and B and your contextual knowledge. [8 marks]

Source F
From J M Keynes' book ‘The Economic Consequences of the Peace’ published in 1919. Keynes was a leading economist who worked for the British government but resigned in protest three weeks before the Treaty of Versailles was signed.

Nations should not morally visit on the children of their enemies the wrongdoings of parents or of rulers. The Treaty includes no provisions for the economic recovery of Europe - nothing to make the defeated Central Empires into good neighbours. The Big Three were preoccupied with other issues - Clemenceau to crush the economic life of his enemy, Lloyd George to bring home something that would be acceptable for a week, the President to do nothing that was not just and right.

Source H  A poster about the Marshall Plan produced in 1950. This poster won first prize in a competition sponsored by the European Recovery Programme. The aim of the poster was to capture the goals and spirit of the Marshall Plan.

!Poster

The seeds of Communism spread and grow in the evil soil of poverty. The Marshall Plan is directed not against any country or doctrine but against hunger, poverty, desperation and chaos. Its purpose should permit the emergence of conditions in which freedom can exist. Any government which blocks the recovery of other countries cannot expect help from us. Furthermore, governments or political parties which seek to prolong human misery in order to profit politically will meet the opposition of the United States.

Source L  A cartoon which appeared in a local newspaper in Ohio, America in 1971.

In this cartoon, President Nixon is being consumed by a meat grinder labelled Vietnam. The pile on the right represents the remains of Lyndon Johnson after being destroyed by the same meat grinder.
Source M  From a speech by President Nixon in January 1973 to the American people.

Throughout the years of negotiations we have insisted on peace with honour. In the settlement that has now been agreed all these conditions have been met. The conditions include the release of prisoners of war within 60 days and all American forces to be withdrawn within the same time.
To the people of South Vietnam, we say by your courage you have won the right to determine your own future. To the leaders of North Vietnam, as we have ended the war through negotiation, let us build a peace of reconciliation.

Conflict and tension, 1990–2009

Source N A wall painting of Saddam Hussein completed in the 1990s. It was on display in Baghdad, the capital of Iraq.

Good morning. American and coalition forces have begun a campaign against Saddam Hussein. Our cause is just, the security of the nations we serve and the peace of the world. And our mission is clear, to disarm Iraq of weapons of mass destruction, to end Saddam’s support for terrorism, and to free the Iraqi people. America faces an enemy who has no regard for morality, using innocent people as shields for his own military. We will defend our freedom and bring freedom to others. I know that the families of our military are praying that all who serve will return safely. Millions of Americans are praying with you. May God bless our country.

Study Source N.

Source N supports Saddam Hussein. How do you know?

Explain your answer using Source N and your contextual knowledge.
